

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 98-00721-CR-LENARD

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

RENE GONZALEZ,

Defendant.

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT RENE GONZALEZ'S MOTION TO TRAVEL (D.E. 1839)

THIS CAUSE is before the Court on Defendant Rene Gonzalez's Motion to Travel (D.E. 1839), filed April 3, 2013. The United States filed a Response (D.E. 1842) on April 10, 2013. Defendant filed a Reply (D.E. 1843) on April 11, 2013. Having considered the referenced filings, related pleadings, and record, the Court finds as follows.

Defendant is serving a term of supervised release stemming from his convictions in the above-captioned matter. Defendant requests leave to travel to Cuba for two weeks in order to attend a memorial service for his recently deceased father. (See Death Certificate, D.E. 1840-1.)

In light of the circumstances, it is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Defendant Rene Gonzalez's Motion to Travel (D.E. 1839) is GRANTED. Defendant may travel to Cuba to attend his father's memorial service, subject to the following conditions:

1. Defendant must obtain all necessary permission, licenses, and/or clearance from the United States Government, including the Department of State and Department of the Treasury, separate and apart from this Order;
2. Defendant shall submit to his probation officer a written, detailed itinerary of his travel, including flight numbers, routing, location, and contact information, as well as copies of all necessary clearances and licenses obtained from the United States Government;
3. Defendant shall not meet, consult, or communicate with Cuban intelligence officials or personnel;
4. During his absence from the district of supervision, Defendant shall report telephonically to his probation officer as directed by his probation officer; and
5. The terms of Defendant's supervised release shall remain otherwise unchanged, and Defendant shall return to the United States and to the district of his supervised release within two weeks of departure.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Miami, Florida, this 12th day of April, 2013.

JOAN A. LENARD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
