Breaking the Silence – September 21st, 2012

Peoples’ Tribunal – September 22nd, 2012

Peoples’ Assembly – September 23rd, 2012
Greetings to participants:

Together our organizations, La Table de concertation de solidarité Québec-Cuba, Canadian Network on Cuba, and Worker to Worker Canada-Cuba Labour Solidarity Network represent thousands of democratic, progressive-minded people across from Canada and Quebec who have worked together to support justice for the Cuban Five who were arrested on September 12, 1998.

We are delighted to welcome you to this Tribunal & Assembly for Justice for the Five.

Over these three days we will hear testimonials from victims, from lawyers, from activists who are sharing their experiences in the hope of breaking the silence of the major media to this gross injustice to René González, Gerardo Hernández, Antonio Guerrero, Ramón Labañino, and Fernando González.

We will add our ideas, energies and commitment to help bring about their immediate release.

We express our appreciation to the Planning Committee that has met regularly since February and worked so diligently to make this event possible. We thank everyone for taking time from busy schedules to travel here and participate as witnesses and Magistrates of Conscience. We thank you, the listeners and supporters, for adding your voices to this just cause for Cuba and the Five Cuban heroes.

Signed on September 13th, 2012

What is the Peoples’ Tribunal?

It is an international opinion tribunal independent from state authorities. The Tribunal may use international human rights laws and precedents in common law.

What is the purpose of the Peoples’ Tribunal?

To challenge the mainstream media’s blackout so that they get involved in covering a story of what is very disturbing in the processes of the U.S. justice system. The media have a choice: either they cover an issue or they are complacent and tacitly ignore an injustice. It took a strong media to expose Watergate – the case of the Cuban Five is just as compelling – why the silence? Who gains from the silence?

Let’s Break the Silence!

That is why the outcry of thousands of concerned citizens over the past 15 years comes to a head, here in Toronto, at the Peoples’ Tribunal. Be part of it!

Who comprises the Peoples’ Tribunal?

A panel of Magistrates of Conscience presides over the Tribunal. The Magistrates come from a wide cross section of highly respected members of the international community who bring their expertise to bear in hearing the case and rendering a final opinion.

How will the Peoples’ Tribunal be run?

During the proceedings lawyers from Canada, Cuba and the US will provide details of the areas where there was the greatest miscarriage of justice in the courts of south Florida. The Peoples’ Tribunal will hear impact statements from victims’ families and analyses by experts from Europe, Canada, the U.S. and Cuba. The families of the Cuban Five will bear testimony to their hardships concerning the barriers to prisoner rights and denial of visits imposed on them.

What is the final outcome of the Peoples’ Tribunal?

At the end of the proceedings the Magistrates of Conscience will render their decision which will be published at the end of the session.

Case Summary

Fourteen years ago, the Cuban Five – René González, Gerardo Hernández, Antonio Guerrero, Ramon Labañino and Fernando González – were arrested, later charged and convicted in Miami for "conspiracy to commit espionage" against the U.S. on behalf of the Cuban government. Ever since those convictions, the five Cubans have been held in separate U.S. prisons, often in solitary confinement.

This Peoples’ Tribunal will hear testimony that:

(1) The Cuban Five were on a mission to monitor and report on violent groups based in southern Florida which, for many years, were responsible for terrorist acts against the Cuban people;

(2) These activities were known to the U.S. government.

Legal representatives, expert witnesses and family members will appear before the Peoples’ Tribunal to show that the Cuban Five were peacefully trying to do what U.S. law enforcement authorities refused to do - prevent terrorism against Cuba.

This Peoples’ Tribunal will examine how this injustice against the Cuban Five occurred and why, as a result, their case has aroused an unprecedented outcry from around the world. The Tribunal will hear testimony about the silence of the media and, thus, the stifling of this outcry. It will hear the demand to overturn these convictions and the demand that the Cuban Five be granted immediate release.
